

CRIME & GENDER

Advancing knowledge and action on crime and gender through education, research, and international partnerships.

Who We Are

The Center for the Study of Crime is an interdisciplinary hub linking criminology, sociology, law, psychology, and gender studies.

Special consultative status with the UN Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC)

What We Do

- » E-Learning Programme (University of Athens) «
- » Crime & Gender Lab «
- » Crime Times (Digital Journal) «

Our Aim

We are building an international network to:

- » Co-produce workshops «
- » Exchange guest lectures «
- » Collaborate on publications «
- » Share knowledge across the UK, EU, and beyond. «

Work With Us

If your institution, organisation, or network is interested in advancing critical perspectives on crime and gender,

let's connect

Join us in strengthening international dialogue on crime and gender.

More Information:

crimegender@e-keme.gr ✉
www.e-keme.gr | E-Learning 🌐